

MOTION BY SUPERVISOR DON KNABE

November 12, 2014

Due to the overwhelming success of its initial retirement seminar, the Retired Employees of Los Angeles County (RELAC) is hosting a second meeting on November 13, 2014, from 11:00 a.m. – 1:00 p.m. in the Board of Supervisors hearing room to accommodate additional employees. Their first seminar, held in the Treasurer-Tax Collector's training room on October 7, attracted a standing-room-only crowd of more than 140 persons, and provided the first opportunity for many employees to get an overview of the retirement process and the many important decisions that must be made.

Holding the second seminar in the larger Board hearing room and on a day other than a Tuesday will provide the opportunity for more employees to attend. Additionally, RELAC has been contacted by other employees asking that a similar seminar be held near their workplaces, and efforts will be made in 2015 to accommodate these employees.

Many of the employees said they learned of the retirement seminar through an e-mail sent by their department, so it is important that similar notification be offered for the second meeting.

RELAC is the only organization that is solely dedicated to the well-being of Los Angeles County retired employees so deserves the support of the County in its efforts to assist employees make important decisions in planning for their retirement and financial future.
